

The question was on the amendment of Mr. Boyden, to the amendment of Mr. Biggs.

Which was rejected.

Mr. Hargrave proposed as a substitute for Mr. Biggs' amendment, the following, to-wit:

Strike out all after the words "Be it further enacted," and insert the following: That in case of failure on the part of said corporation, the private or individual property of each Stockholder therein, shall be subject by law to the payment of his part of the debts of the corporation, after the property of the Company is first exhausted, in proportion to the amount of Stock severally owned and held by them at the time of such failure; and not otherwise.

Which was read.
